Special Needs Programs

The Community Services Department encourages and welcomes Milton residents with special needs to become involved in recreation programs.

Special Needs Programs

The Town of Milton offers various S.N.A.P. and I-CAN programs throughout the year, including additional registered programs for children and youth with special needs.

Special Needs Activity Program (S.N.A.P.) (6 - 21 years): Children and youth with special needs will participate in games, crafts, swimming and indoor/outdoor activities.

Registration for S.N.A.P.

1. In Person/Drop-off: Milton Leisure Centre or Milton Sports Centre
2. Mail: Town of Milton, Community Services Department, 150 Mary Street, Milton, ON L9T 6Z5
3. Fax: 905-864-3222

I-CAN (Integrated Camps for Assisted Needs): Participants with special needs will participate in various Town of Milton day camp programs with one-to-one support.

Registration for I-CAN

Complete a Town of Milton registration form, fill out the details in the Health Information section, and use the I-CAN Course numbers to request one-to-one staff support for specific weeks of the camp; also indicate your choice of camp.
